

20 October 2015

Relevant event: Lleida.net sells its stakes in the mobile device game development company Plunge Interactive

The price of the stake held by Lleida.net has multiplied the price at which it was acquired by 14.

On 30 September, Lleida.net signed the sale of its -47%- stake in the shareholding structure of the company Plunge Interactive to the North American company Space Inc, its largest client today. The corporate purpose of the latter is the development of applications.

Lleida.net acquired 47% of the company in 2012, at which time Plunge Interactive was already in operation as it had been developing Apps since the year before.

The amount of the transaction is lower than 5% of the company's turnover as reflected in its most recent annual report.

Sincerely,

In Lleida, 20 October 2015

Francisco Sapena Soler

Founder and CEO of Lleida.net

(This is a translated copy of the Spanish version which remains the authentic).